Lyrics

Sherry, when am I going to see you?

I can't keep waitin' for you

I'm nothing without you
I'm lonely without you

Darling please
Come back to me

Come on come on
Come on come on

[SONG ENDS HERE FOR COMMERCIAL]

Sherry, I wanna go dancing
Like the days, when we'd be romancing

Cuz when you shake
The cars stop their breaks
They all hate to see

A lovely girl,
Like you with me!

Come on come on
Come on come on

Sherry, I can't wait any longer

When you're with me
I feel much stronger

Oh baby, please be mine
We'll have a great time

Let's dance and wine
And leave the past behind

Come on come on
Come on come on

I'LL BE ON TIME

Lyrics

You're stuck in traffic rushing to work
But I'm not worried I'll be on time

Stressing about your daily commute
But I know I'll be on time

Missed the train, now you're going insane
But I know I'll be on time

Get yourself the right watch
And you'll always be on time

la la la la la la
la la la la la la

Lyrics

Well I'm just a cowgirl looking for my cowboy
And I'm just a cowboy and I've found my cowgirl

We've found each other
And now we know just what to do

After the honky tonk closes
I'll still be dancing with you

We'll be dancing till midnight
And then we'll be dancing more!

So, you've got a great piece of content that's making waves in the English-speaking market. But wouldn't you like to reach a global audience? Whether you've got a blog post, book, video, or film, you could benefit from translation services.

Here's why you should consider investing in translation services for your content:

REACHING A WIDER AUDIENCE

As mentioned already, you'll reach a wider audience across borders and cultures. For example, if you translate your work to Spanish – you'll not only reach an audience in Spain but most of Latin America and even a large audience within the United States. What about Hindi? You'll reach a large percentage of India's population – and you'll get to target one of the fastest-growing markets in the world.

DEVELOPING AN INTERNATIONAL REPUTATION

Thanks to translation, many great artists and creators throughout history have had their work influence the world. For example, the Japanese novel "Burutasu No Shinzou" was adapted for a Hindi-language movie called "Monica O My Darling." Thanks to dubbing and subtitling, the Telugu-language film RRR has reached an audience all over India and the world! And Agatha Christie is the world's most translated author – so now someone in every corner of the globe can read along as Hercule Poirot solves the case!

INCREASING YOUR SALES

Of course, as an entrepreneur you want to increase your sales as much as you can. Even though the English-speaking market is huge, there are still many other markets out there eager to devour your content. Your book might make the top 10 in your country, but perhaps it'll be the number one bestseller somewhere else!

LET SURI TRANSLATIONS HELP YOU

So, are you interested in getting your content translated? Suri Translations offers translations for English-language content to Hindi, Serbian, Spanish, and Russian. Whether you want to translate blog posts and books, or subtitle videos and films, they're here to help. You can visit them at www.SuriTranslations.com

MAKING MONEY ONLINE

Infomercial on earning a digital income

Making money online is no longer a choice - it's now an absolute necessity. Making money online offers location independence and helps you earn money 24/7. Even if you enjoy working on-site or you're required to do so, you should still be thinking of ways to earn an online income.

Here's are 3 of the easiest ways for beginners to get started with making money online:

1. GET A REMOTE JOB

The quickest way to earn an online income is to find a remote job. If you're currently employed, ask your employer if you can transition to working remotely. Otherwise, there are many job boards such as RemoteOK.io, WeWorkRemotely.com, and DynamiteJobs.com that offer remote jobs.

You can also apply directly on a company's website to see what positions are available online. One thing you must remember is that remote jobs don't necessarily mean location-independence. Some remote jobs will still require you to live in a particular state, country, region, or within a particular time-zone. For ultimate freedom, try to find a job which truly lets you work from anywhere.

2. BECOME A FREELANCER

If you want complete freedom and control over your income and your work schedule, you should go the freelancing route. Focus on one skill that you're good at and offer it as a service. If you're great at writing, for example, you can write or ghostwrite books, blog posts, copy, press releases, or video scripts – just like the one I'm reading now!

Do you speak multiple languages? Consider translation, interpreting, or teaching work. Do you love creating images and videos? You can become a graphic designer or video creator. There are many platforms online to find freelance gigs. However, you want to think long-term and reach out to clients on your own and build relationships with them to receive continuous work.

3. SELL PRODUCTS ONLINE

The third route is to sell products online. You can sell physical products using e-Commerce platforms. You can ship them on your own or use drop-shipping, where you handle customer service while the manufacturer handles the shipping process.

You can also sell digital products online such as eBooks, courses, or apps. With this route, you create the product once and then continue to promote it to earn money. This is a time-consuming process but with a great digital product, you have the potential to earn money 24/7.

Good Luck!

The tobacco industry is dying.

More smokers quit every year, and many don't even get started.

While we all want to look after our health, the decline of tobacco companies has had grave consequences.

Millions, even billions of profits have gone down the ashtray.

Millions of lungs may have been saved, but thousands of jobs have been lost.
Can you really look at yourself in the mirror while your fellow citizens are losing their jobs?

So please, light up a tobacco employee's life and light up a cigarette.

Lyrics

Hey hey hey
I'm goin' to the soda shop
Gonna drink me a vanilla milkshake
Put a nickel in the juke box
Shake to Chucky Berry and Elvis
I'm livin' life like I should
And it's never been so good!

Take me to the fifties
Take me to the fifties
Soda jerks, rock n roll, twistin' all night
It's the golden age!

Take me to the fifties
Take me to the fifties
Take me to the fifties
